

WATER POURING STATION

Explore Pouring

Learning to pour is a great skill that your toddler will love and they will be learning so much too

They will be working on...

- Language development
- Hand- eye coordination
- Grip strength
- Capacity (more and Less)
- Cause and effect
- Problem solving
- Making decisions

All this while just having fun. You can explore pouring both indoors and outdoors, you can even add it into your daily tasks such as meal times.

Water play is an adult led activity which should be supervised at all times.
