

Race to the Stones

Saturday 11th – Sunday 12th July 2026

Step into 5,000 years of history on Britain's oldest footpath. The Race to the Stones is one of the UK's most iconic ultramarathons, taking you across the Ridgeway through ancient landscapes and finishing at the legendary Avebury Standing Stones. Whether you're a first-time ultra runner or a seasoned endurance athlete, this fully supported event offers a truly unforgettable experience.

Challenge Options

- 50 km – single day
- 100 km Non-Stop – continuous ultra
- 100 km Over Two Days – with overnight camping

Route Highlights

- Sweeping chalk downs and ancient forests
- Cross England's longest river
- Finish at Avebury, a UNESCO World Heritage site
- Fully signposted trails for easy navigation
- Event photographers at key scenic points

You can take part in The Race to the Stones 2026 in support of Dingley's Promise, whether you choose to self-fund your place or opt for a fundraising package that helps cover your entry fee with a fundraising target.

To sign up email fundraising@dingley.org.uk, and you'll receive a Dingley support kit, help setting up your JustGiving page, and encouragement and support on your fundraising journey.

Take on the challenge and open the door to brighter futures for children with SEND.
